1 Stop when traffic lights are red

Proceed when lights are green. Stop when lights are yellow or red.

In the case of traffic lights with a green arrow, proceed in the direction of the arrow when it lights up while paying attention to oncoming vehicles.

2 Stop when you see this sign

Stop when you see the below sign at an intersection, and check all directions before proceeding.

You should check all directions before entering intersections, even without this sign

3 Driver's Seat Is on The Right

Japanese roads are left-sided way just like the British system, and driver's side is on the right hand side. This can be confusing for many overseas drivers at the beginning.

4 Wear A Seat Belt While Driving

According to the Japanese law for motor transportation, seat belt use is required not only for the driver's seat but also other front and back passenger seats.

5 Drunk Driving Is Prohibited

If you are caught driving under the influence of alcohol and inability to drive; not only the driver will be penalized for the alcoholic behavior, but any passengers in the same vehicle who also have a driver license will also be penalized.

6 Speed Limit of The Highway

In general, highways have a speed limit from 80km/h (56MPH) to 100km/h (62.5MPH). Some of local highways restrict the speed limit of up to 70km/h (43.75MPH).

7 Illegal Parking

Many cities in Japan prohibited and penalized parking on the streets, overseas tourists must pay attention. There are many parking buildings and automatic parking payable by coins available in small districts.

8 Don't use a smartphone when driving.

It is against the law to drive while talking on the Phone, sending messages or looking at your smartphone.

Contact the police and your car rental company's accident assistance hotline immediately if you are involved in an accident.

You have taken out Collision Damage Waiver (CDW) coverage, right? These schemes pay out compensation for deductibles when you are involved in an accident. However, if you fail to notify the police or your car rental company, you may not be covered by your insurance and will have to pay the repair costs. In addition, if you damage the car body or dirty the car's interior, you may be charged a Non-Operation Charge (NOC) as a part of compensation that is not covered by your insurance. Coverage varies by insurance policy, so make sure to double check the coverage content of your policy.
